During your working years, your job will take up a fair bit of your time. Yet it's so crucial to take time away from the stresses of work to spend more time with loved ones and do things to make yourself more well rounded.

Give yourself a boost by giving back to others. Volunteering has been shown to lower stress levels, increase personal satisfaction and can even contribute to greater life expectancy.⁵

To fully enjoy your golden years, being financially prepared is a must. As it stands, many Americans rely on Social Security for income in retirement.⁶

Foresters organizes a number of social events, giving members the possibility of connecting with one another.

Illness

You never expect to get ill

Nobody wants to get sick. The reality, however, is that each year millions of Americans are diagnosed with a life-changing condition.⁹

If you happen to find yourself in this situation, it can be comforting to know that you may be able to afford the necessary treatment without having to ask family members to shoulder the cost.

After all, you should be focused on your recovery, not stressed about whether or not you can pay the bills.

■ Be prepared

For Critical, Chronic and Terminal Illness

Advantage Plus II comes with an Accelerated Death Benefit Rider. This built-in feature provides an option to accelerate a portion of the eligible death benefit and receive a payment if you are diagnosed with a covered illness, which may include one or more of a critical, chronic or terminal illness. This can be used to help cover expenses including those associated with treatment, or to provide supplemental funds in case you cannot work. Importantly, if your certificate's dividends are being used to purchase additional paid up insurance, you are potentially increasing the death benefit, which can then be accelerated if you suffer a covered illness.¹⁰

Remembered

A legacy is the greatest gift you can leave

Your legacy encompasses everything you leave to the world. It can be your unique personality, or a spirit of generosity. One important way to leave a legacy is in the form of life insurance. With increasing levels of consumer debt¹¹ life insurance can help to lessen the burden on your loved ones.

You also have the opportunity to define your legacy by helping others. By dedicating money to an important cause, you leave your mark on the world in the most compassionate way possible.

■ Leave your mark

The Advantage Plus II death benefit amount can help provide financial security for your beneficiaries. With this part of your legacy, you can make life easier for those you care about most.
